

Mrs Rosa Daniel
DS (Culture), MCCY
CEO National Arts Council

Mrs Rosa Daniel is the Deputy Secretary (Culture) in the Singapore Ministry of Culture, Community and Youth and the Chief Executive Officer of the National Arts Council (NAC). She was Chief Executive of the National Heritage Board from February 2013 to May 2017. Prior to joining the culture sector, she held other senior appointments in the economic and social sectors.

In her capacity as DS Culture, Mrs Daniel oversees the policies and implementation work of the Ministry and its statutory boards, the National Heritage Board and the NAC, on issues related to the arts and heritage. She also works with the companies under the Ministry, namely School of the Arts, National Gallery, Singapore Art Museum and the Esplanade.

As the Chief Executive of the NAC, Mrs Daniel oversees its work to champion the creation and appreciation of the arts through nurturing excellence and community outreach. She also works with key partners to profile Singapore internationally through the arts.

National Arts Council [Singapore]

The National Arts Council (NAC) champions the arts in Singapore. By nurturing creative excellence and supporting broad audience engagement, they want to develop Singapore as a distinctive global city where the arts inspire the people and connect the communities. NAC preserves the rich, cultural traditions of Singapore while cultivate accomplished artists and vibrant companies for the future. Their support for the arts is comprehensive – from grants and partnerships to industry facilitation and arts housing. The Council welcomes greater private and corporate giving to and through the arts so that together they can make the arts an integral part of everyone's lives.
